

Client

The client API is a http based API that allows you and your clients to interact directly with a virtual server with security and easiness. The client API can be disabled at any time. Access is only granted with a key and hash on a per vps basis.

Currently next options are available: Reboot, Boot, Shutdown and status report (online/offline).

- Functions
- PHP Code Examples